KROWDKRAFT COMMUNITY PRESENTS

You Made the Final List!

Hacktoberfest Hack Day Bengaluru 2026

Hello Participant,

Congratulations! Your spot is confirmed.

After reviewing registrations, individual RSVPs and participation requirements, we are excited to confirm your place at Hacktoberfest Hack Day Bengaluru 2026, hosted by KrowdKraft Community.

And you are one of them.

From hundreds of developers who registered, you are among those confirmed to join us in Bengaluru on 18 October. Now it is time to turn your ideas into something worth showcasing.

The final confirmed participant list is attached to this email as a PDF.

Your Hack Day at a Glance

| | |
|---|---|
| When | Sunday, 18 October 2026 |
| Where | Startup Park, Bengaluru |
| Arrival | From 8:30 AM IST |

Your Next Move: Start Building

The official project development window is 13-18 October 2026, so you can begin building now. On the event day, onsite building starts at 9:30 AM, with a tentative project submission deadline of 3:30 PM.

Choose one primary track and one primary problem statement: Best Use of Gemma 4 or Best Open-Source AI Project. Remember to prepare a public GitHub repository and a working live deployment. Explore the ShipWright AI Leaderboard Challenge for additional recognition and rewards.

Read the Official Participant Handbook

Your handbook covers problem statements, tracks, build rules, venue directions, challenge instructions, project submissions, schedule and check-in requirements. Read it completely before arriving.

Important: Venue Entry Requirements

This confirmation means you have a reserved spot, but entry is subject to these mandatory checks:

1. Complete your Hackfront India Hackathon registration.
2. Create or join a team on Hackfront.
3. Be ready for verification during in-person check-in.

Without both Hackfront registration and team formation, venue entry will not be permitted, even if your name appears in the attached list. Your Hackfront team name and members do not need to match your Hacktoberfest Hack Day team.

Bring valid identification and keep your participation confirmation ready. Any verified discrepancy in the attached final list must be submitted through the official participant query form.

We look forward to meeting you, seeing your ideas come to life and celebrating what Bengaluru's developer community can build together.

See you on 18th October!

Regards,
